To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council aſſembled, with the moſt zealous Ardour and Affection embrace the earlieſt Opportunity of approaching the Throne of the beſt of Princes, with our joyful Congratulations on every Event pleaſing to your Majeſty and ſalutary to your Kingdoms.

The ſafe Delivery of the Queen, a Princeſs endeared to your Majeſty and the whole Nation by every Royal and virtuous Accompliſhment, fills our Hearts with the utmoſt Thankfulneſs to Divine Providence.

An Increaſe of your Majeſty's Auguſt Family by the Birth of a Princeſs Royal, cannot fail of diffuſing univerſal Joy amongſt all your faithful Subjects, as it farther ſecures to them and their Poſterity a long Continuance of thoſe ineſtimable Bleſſings which they have hitherto enjoyed under the Protection of your Majeſty's illuſtrious Houſe.

The auſpicious Marriage of your Majeſty's Royal Siſter, the Princeſs Caroline Matilda, with that great Potentate the King of Denmark, (on which we beg Leave to felicitate your Majeſty) muſt afford the moſt intereſting Satisfaction, not only to us and all your Majeſty's loyal Subjects, but alſo to every Proteſtant Power in Europe.

Permit us, Royal Sir! to aſſure you, That your faithful Citizens of London are ever ready to evince to all the World, that their Hearts and Affections are ſincere Oblations of Gratitude to your Majeſty for your conſtant paternal Care, and eſpecially for the recent Inſtance of your tender Attention to the Neceſſities of your People.

Signed by Order of Court,
James Hodges.

To which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to return this moſt gracious Anſwer:

YOUR loyal and affectionate Profeſſions upon the happy Events of My Queen's ſafe Delivery, and the Marriage of My Siſter to My very good Ally the King of Denmark, cannot but be moſt acceptable to Me.

It is with Pleaſure that I ſee the juſt Senſe which the City of London entertains of thoſe Meaſures, which the Neceſſity of the Occaſion obliged Me to take for the Relief of My People; and I hope they will have the deſired Effect of quieting Mens Minds, and removing the Diſtreſſes which ſeemed daily to increaſe.

They were all received very graciouſly, and had the Honour to kiſs His Majeſty's Hand.

After which His Majeſty was pleaſed to confer the Honor of Knighthood on Robert Darling and James Eſdail, Eſqrs. the Sheriffs of the City of London.

St. James's, October 11.

The following Addreſs of the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Glouceſter, has been preſented to the King by Lord Berkeley: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Lord Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy, of the County of Glouceſter, beg Leave to approach the Throne with Hearts inflamed with Gratitude, for your Majeſty's moſt gracious and ſeaſonable Interpoſition to the Diſtreſſes of your People, by your Royal Proclamations, forbidding the Exportation of Wheat, and putting a Stop to the Diſtillery.

Penetrated by this freſh Inſtance of your Majeſty's paternal Care and ever watchful Attention to our Welfare and Proſperity, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty, that we eſteem it our unrivalled Happineſs and Glory to be the Subjects of a Monarch, under whoſe Government a real Principle of Submiſſion is the beſt Proof of our Love of Liberty, and the beſt Security for its Continuance; a Monarch in whoſe Hands Prerogative may juſtly be eſteemed the Gift of Heaven, directed only to the glorious Purpoſe of ſuccouring and bleſſing Mankind.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Norwich.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Magiſtrates, Clergy, Merchants, Manufacturers, and principal Inhabitants of the City of Norwich, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Perſon, and to expreſs our Thankfulneſs for your Majeſty's gracious and paternal Goodneſs, in attending to the humble Repreſentations laid before you by ourſelves, and others of your Majeſty's faithful Subjects, concerning the Exportation of Wheat and Flour.

Endeared to your People by repeated Acts of Benevolence, nothing can more ſtrongly ſupport our Confidence in your Majeſty, or more firmly aſſure to us the Happineſs we enjoy under your auſpicious Government, than that Goodneſs and Condeſcenſion with which your Majeſty hath ſo inſtantly and effectually relieved the Fears of your People.

Permit us, Sir, with all Reſpect and Duty, to offer our Congratulations upon two late happy Events, the Increaſe of your illuſtrious Progeny, by the Birth of a Princeſs, and the Marriage of your Royal Siſter, the Princeſs Carolina Matilda, with his Majeſty the King of Denmark; an Alliance calculated to ſtrengthen the Proteſtant Intereſt, and promote the general Welfare of theſe Kingdoms.

Influenced by Principle, and animated by your Majeſty's exemplary Juſtice and Paternal Care in redreſſing the Grievances of your faithful Subjects in theſe remote Parts of your wide extended Empire, with the deepeſt Senſe of your Majeſty's Royal Clemency and Goodneſs, we humbly offer to your moſt Sacred Majeſty our ſincere Thanks for the Repeal of the late Act of the Britiſh Parliament, commonly called the American Stamp-Act: Nor can we ſufficiently revere the Magnanimity and Juſtice diſplayed by the Britiſh Parliament on this Occaſion.

Permit us, Dread Sir, while we endeavour to expreſs our Gratitude to the beſt of Kings, for affording us ſo ſpeedy and neceſſary Relief, to aſſure your Majeſty, that we ſhall, upon all Occaſions, ſtrive to evince our Loyalty and firm Attachment to your Majeſty's Sacred Perſon and Government, being truly ſenſible of the Advantages derived to us from the Protection of our Mother Country; and that it is, and ever will be, our Honour, Happineſs, and true Intereſt, to remain connected with and dependent on, the Imperial Crown and Parliament of Great Britain, upon the ſolid Baſis of the Britiſh Conſtitution.

That your Majeſty's Illuſtrious Houſe may continue to reign over a free, loyal, and grateful People, to the lateſt Poſterity, is, moſt Gracious Sovereign, our conſtant Prayer, unfeigned Wiſh, and our moſt ſanguine Hopes.

By order of the Upper Houſe,
